

The world of Geography... books to enjoy!

Around the library and around the world....

China...Canada....
Brazil...Africa
where next?

Encyclopaedia.... all you need to know and grow

Could you survive?

The World of Geography - Books to Enjoy!

Some suggestions for KS3 - all available in the school library

NON -FICTION

The Horrible Geography Series - Fun filled and factual books about Volcanoes, Earthquakes, Rivers, and Mountains etc.

Geography - A Children's Encyclopedia - a fabulous introduction to the subject.

Mission Elephant Rescue - Part of a set from the National Geographic about endangered species such as tigers, sea turtles and polar bears.

Mud, Sweat and Tears - Bear Grylls

Touching the Void - Joe Simpson

Two amazing tales of survival!

FICTION

A selection of books set in different countries of the world. Some titles do deal with some strong issues.

Chinese Cinderella- The Secret Diary of an Unwanted Daughter - Adeline Yeh Mah

Trash - Andy Mulligan (Brazil)

Now is the Time for Running - Michael Williams (Zimbabwe)

Holes - Louis Sachar (USA)

Hatchet - Gary Paulsen (Canada)

Into that Forest - Louis Nowra (Australia)

Explore different cultures and expand your horizons