The Role of the Chair of a Committee

- To ensure the business of the Committee is conducted properly, in accordance with legal requirements.
- To work with the Headteacher and committee clerk to draw up an appropriate agenda with a focus on school improvement as well as statutory requirements.
- To ensure meetings are run effectively, focusing on priorities and making the best use of time available, and to ensure that all members have an equal opportunity to participate in discussion and decision-making.

Disqualification from role – none.

The Role of the Clerk to Committees

- To convene meetings of the Committee, taking directions from the governing body and chair of the committee.
- To attend meetings of the Committee and ensure minutes are taken.
- To perform such other functions with respect to the Committee as may be determined by the governing body from time to time.
- To ensure the Governing Body/Board of Directors publishes up to date details of our governance arrangements on the Academy website including relevant business and pecuniary interests.
- To notify the EFA of the appointment of members or trustees.

Disqualification from role – the headteacher.

Confidentiality

- In general, governors' minutes and papers are not confidential and must be available, once ratified, for anyone to read. Information relating to a named person or any other matter that the committee considers confidential does not have to be made available for inspection. In respect of items of confidentiality, total discretion is expected.
- Occasionally, minutes of a committee may be deemed confidential and in these cases will be circulated only to the committee members and not the full governing body. (This may be to ensure that in the event of appeal against a decision made by the committee, an appeal panel of governors who have no prior knowledge of the circumstance can be constituted). [It is common practice to produce confidential items on pink paper for identification].
- Any document to be presented to the full governing body should avoid using staff names (it is better to refer to the person's designation i.e. special educational needs co-ordinator). Likewise students' names should not be recorded in minutes and should be omitted from presentations to governors.
- Confidential items should be written on separate sheets, stating 'Confidential'. The need to classify information as Confidential should only be used when absolutely necessary.
- With regard to discussion within committees, the same rules of confidentiality apply in relation to sharing discussion with other parties, i.e. total discretion should be integral to governors' roles where appropriate and deemed confidential.

Finance, Premises, Health & Safety Committee
