

CAREERS WITHIN OUR INDUSTRY

WWW.MELLORSCATERING.CO.UK

 @mellorsscatering

CHEF

Your day-to-day tasks as a Chef will depend on your role, but may include:

- Preparing attractive menus to nutritional standards.
- Controlling and ordering stock and inspecting it on delivery.
- Preparing meats and fish for cooking.
- Scraping and washing large quantities of vegetables and salads.
- Cooking and presenting food creatively.
- Monitoring production to maintain quality and consistent portion sizes.
- Working under pressure to make sure food is served on time.
- Keeping to hygiene, health and safety and licensing rules.

CATERING MANAGER

A Catering Manager is the person who manages the day-to-day operations of catering services in a restaurant, hotel, resort, or any other part of the hospitality industry.

WWW.MELLORSCATERING.CO.UK

AREA MANAGER

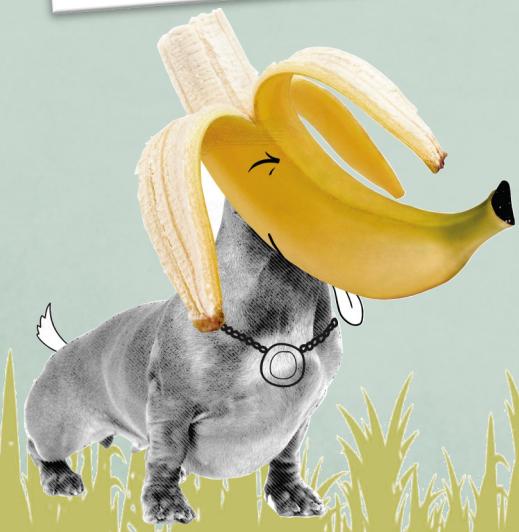

As an Area (or Regional) Manager, you'll have overall responsibility for a number of contracts in an allocated area. You'll be responsible for staff and you'll work closely with other Senior Managers, Department Managers and clients to ensure the smooth running and success of each contract.

GROUP MANAGER

A Group Manager is a broad job title that is similar to an Area Manager. Group managing encompasses many types of industries, but the nature of this position remains. If you are a Group Manager, your focus is your group or team ensuring the smooth delivery of each contract within the group.

@mellorscatering

HEALTH & SAFETY MANAGER

Being a Health and Safety Manager, you will ensure that the organisation meets the necessary legislative obligations and drive the continuous improvement of health and safety throughout the business.

- Promoting a positive health and safety culture throughout your organisation.
- Developing health and safety management systems including quality assurance systems and compliance with external audits.
- Managing and co-ordinating audits, including liaising with external contractors.
- Supporting and developing the health, safety and environmental strategy.
- Developing internal and external networks to allow performance to be benchmarked.
- Ensuring compliance with legislation and incorporating any updates in law into the health and safety policy.
- Business risk analysis and risk assessments.
- Reducing the number of health and safety incidents to a minimum.

MARKETING MANAGER

The Marketing Manager is defined by the department functions. Our organisation has a marketing division responsible for marketing strategy, advertising, researching, promoting, conducting customer surveys, branding, public relations. Creativity is at the heart of this department.

OPERATIONS DIRECTOR

Operations Directors play a crucial role for a number of organisations, optimising efficiency and ensuring cohesiveness. Although most professionals will have a similar core set of duties, an Operations Director's responsibilities will often vary based on the field in which he or she works.

MANAGING DIRECTOR

A Managing Director coordinates the activities for a specific organisation. He also keeps business goals and objectives in mind and makes sure employees are all on board with those goals and objectives.

Managing Directors must support the partnerships and the company's alliances while representing the company to the public, stakeholders, major customers, professional organisations and any business partners.

@mellorscatering

HEAD OF FOOD DEVELOPMENT

Responsible for the Food Development and Nutrition Department overseeing the development of food and nutrition within the business. This role also provides direct support to the onsite teams in relation to Healthy Eating, Nutrition, Allergens etc.

A fun role !!

PAYROLL MANAGER

The principal role of the Payroll Manager is to ensure accurate delivery of payroll to a company's workforce.

Responsible for processing weekly or monthly payroll runs, ensuring the employer and employee PAYE are managed and paid in good time.

Also responsible for managing the company's pensions and benefits payments as well as maintaining payroll accounts and employee records.

HR MANAGER

A Human Resources Manager maintains and enhances the organisation's human resources by planning, implementing and evaluating employee relations, and human resources policies, programs and practices. They also effectively manage all aspects of employment law.

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

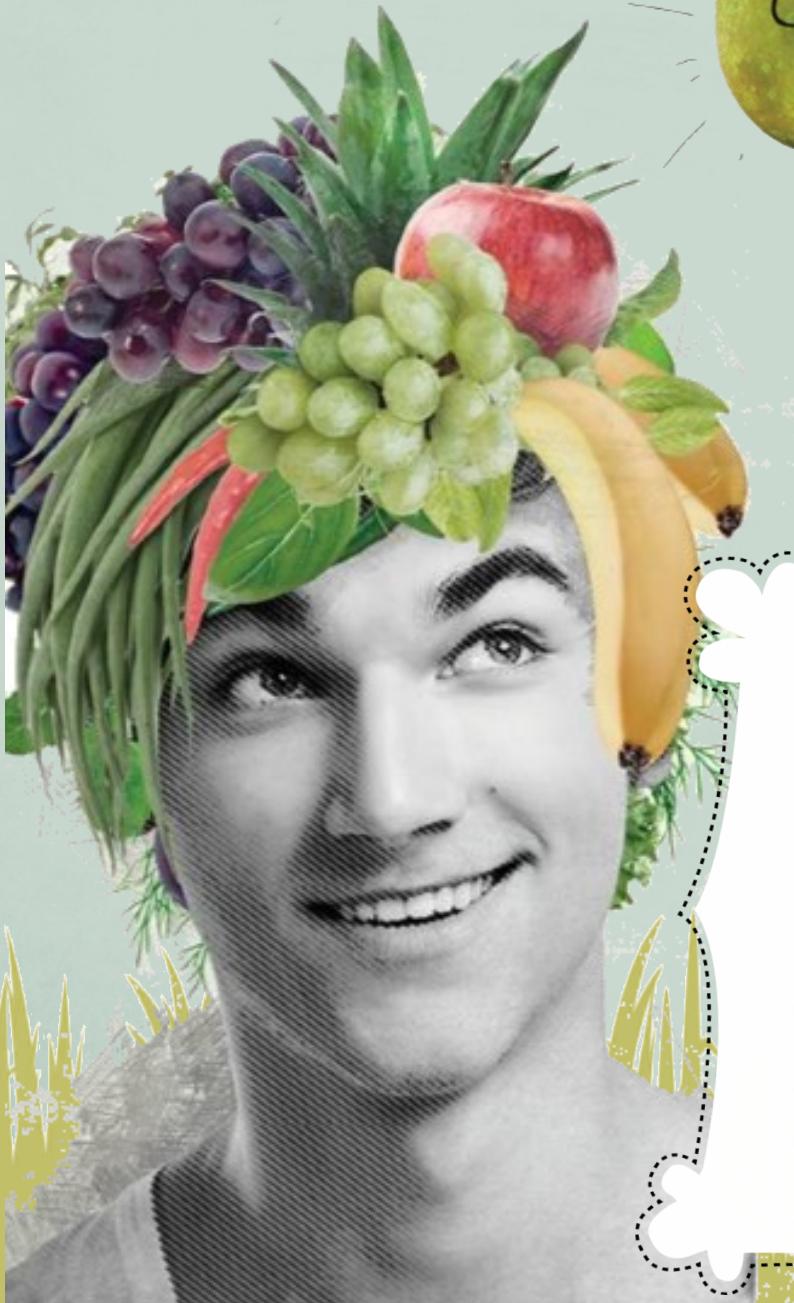

A Business Development Manager works to improve the organisation's market position and financial growth by winning new business.

This position builds long-term relationships and identifies business opportunities.

@mellorscatering

Mellors

YOUR FUTURE
can BE BRIGHT

GOOD LUCK
IN YOUR
FUTURE
CAREER