

French Transition Work

Welcome to A- level French! We are delighted that you intend to study French to A-level and we very much look forward to working with you in Year 12. Over the next few weeks, ensure you are confident with GCSE vocabulary and grammar by accessing the links below. You can also access the wealth of GCSE tasks and past papers in Google Classrooms. The following tasks aim to consolidate but also to challenge you, as you make the transition from GCSE to A Level. Try to immerse yourself in as much French as you can over the coming weeks. Practise your French regularly and remember little and often is the key. If you are unsure about any of the tasks below, please email me at jsennitt-woods@stmacademy.org.uk.

1. Choose an aspect of French culture you are interested in and present it in French in Powerpoint form. You can choose any aspect of food, music, history, architecture, film, literature you like. Make it as creative as you like! (Complete up to 8 slides)

2. Grammar Focus

To consolidate learning at GCSE grammar, please work your way through the tasks on these websites:

Languages online

BBC Bitesize

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zhh2gwx>

3. Vocabulary

You must be confident with GCSE vocabulary so please ensure you have completed the GCSE vocabulary on Memrise.

Start a post-GCSE French vocab book. Add words you have not previously come across and learn them. Skim read, write down and learn what you think are the most important ones. Start with those which appear most often.

Start to learn some A level vocabulary on Memrise. Please contact me at jsennitt-woods@stmacademy.org.uk for the link if you haven't accessed it already.

4. Follow the link to the website for UNESCO (<https://whc.unesco.org/fr/etatsparties/fr/>) and choose four sites to research in French/English. The sites do not have to be in France, you can choose any francophone country, i.e. Canada, Senegal etc. Present your findings in word – 50 words each MAX.
